LEGAL NOTICE

Funds Available for Housing Projects Serving the Homeless

The Homeless Continuum of Care of Stark County (HCCSC) is currently preparing an application for funding of local housing projects serving the homeless. It will submit that application to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) by September 28, 2023, in response to a Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) that HUD issued on July 5, 2023, for the FY2023 Continuum of Care Program Competition. The local competition determines which projects will be prioritized by the HCCSC to apply for HUD funding. All projects seeking to apply need to submit a completed eSNAPS application and FY2023 HCCSC Scoring Criteria and Score Sheet Appendix by 12:00 pm on August 21, 2023. CoC reallocation and Bonus funding will be available for new or expansion project applications. Domestic Violence (DV) Bonus funding is estimated to be available in the amount of $336,171 and CoC Bonus funding is estimated to be available in the amount of $235,320.

Eligible new projects for DV Bonus funds include PH-RRH and SSO-CE. Eligible new projects for CoC Bonus funding include PH-PSH, PH-RRH, HMIS, and SSO-CE.

For additional criteria, refer to the Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) for the Fiscal Year FY2023 Continuum of Care Program Competition please visit the link below.
